

Granddaddy, What Can't Be Erased

If you could have seen my face
Reflected off
A lone dinner plate

Trying to erase
What can't be erased?

If you would have rung my phone
I would have said
I hate being alone

Trying to erase
What can't be erased?

If you would drive by now
We could sit
And laugh about how

Tried to erase
What can't be erased?
What can't be erased?
