

Granian, Circle

Time it spent
Everyday I've seen
To this day I don't know what it means
Looks like something I might have recognized
Can't see clearly something with my eyes

Look through the wall see on the other side
Must be something in disguise
It's all in my head I pray

I can feel my soul deny
But still I feel it hurt sometimes
Why do you break me down
Only to find the circle goes around me

See around
Initiate shame
Don't forgive for it will turn out the same
The weary eyes don't agree with the mind
Infect what you cannot take
To bleed is more than I can say

Look down the hall see something on the floor
Must be someone at the door
It's all in my head I pray

I can feel my soul deny
But still I feel it hurt sometimes
Why do you break me down
Only to find the circle goes around me
