

Granian, The World

grass is green, the trees are tall watch me walk and watch me fall flower pot sits in the window, staring at, staring at the world
in my eyes
perfect blue skies
memories are jaded, with fingerpaint just keeps on faing, won't hesitate wanna bring, wanna bring, wanna watch me see
the world
in my eyes
grow up kid your destiny calls you nothing left to prove all my life been proud of direction, but proud for who Can't be real and so I close my eyes (the world in my eyes)
Look ahead, all is perfect blue skies (the world perfect blue skies)
Can you see my world?
in my eyes
the world is fading, still fading
