

Granian, Without Change

If morning comes up way too fast
A feeling left untrue
See my head and watch it roll Yet I
Continue to walk, walk as you crawl
Lie, Believe me, I don't care
Feel the faces press up against me
Taken by the hand
I feel the hell under my feet Yet I
Continue to walk, walk with the beat
Lie, Believe me, I don't care
I see you, without change,
I fear you.

Anticipate the time
All your life left in my mind,
Breathe so soft,
Hearts they cry,
All is true for you

If morning comes up in your face
Try not to relive that bruise
It seems now that all's said and done that I, have lost of my, all of my use
Lie, Believe me, I don't care
I see you, without change,
I fear you.

Drag it up, Breathe so softly,
And I will,
Pull it down, I can't stand on my own
And I will,
Breathe soft, Leave on,
Take mine, Resolve,
What all is true for you.
