

Grant Lee Phillips, Raise The Spirit

Nothin gonna break heart your today
Nothin gonna steal your light away
Even when the skies are turnin grey
Ah, youre gonna welcome in the rain

Come on, Come on
Ah let me hear it
Come on, Come on
Ill raise the spirit

Nothin gonna chain you once your free
Havent gotta live in misery, no
Even when ya tried out every key
Still another door worth opening, yea

Come on, Come on
Ah let me hear it
Come on, Come on
Ill raise the spirit

Music in your heart
Comin on in waves, love
Thunder in your head is rollin away

Nothin gonna twist your arm again
Nothin gonna sway you like the wind, oh
Never gonna get under your skin
Nothin gonna twist your arm again, no

Come on, Come on
Ah let me hear it
Come on, Come on
Ill raise the spirit

Come on, Come on
Ah let me hear it
Come on, Come on
Ill raise the spirit
