

Grant Lee Phillips, Smile

You take the air in You take the whole room in, ya hold it for all time, hold it in your heart like amber you take the night in you take the consequences major in your life, not by what is safe to wager

Smile, there's no regrets Layers wash through our hands and then you never see tomorrow comin';
You only feel the wake of it
Smile, there's no release
This flood of life won't cease
To leave you lying in wild amazement
Or reeling in the wake of it

You take the grandeur
And I'll take to wondering the error of my ways
I could ponder this forever

Smile, there's no regrets (no regrets)
Layers wash through our hands and
then you never see tomorrow comin';
You only feel the wake of it
Smile, there's no release (no release)
This flood of life won't cease
To leave you lying in wild amazement
Or reeling in the wake of it, oh no

ooooh, ooooo, ooooo,

Smile, there's no regrets (no regrets)
Layers wash through our hands and then you never see tomorrow comin'; (never see tomorrow)
You only feel the wake of it (you only feel the wake of it)
Smile, there's no release (no release)
This flood of life won't cease
To leave you lying in wild amazement

Smile... smile.... smile.... smile....
