Grateful Dead, Terrapin Station: Lady With A Fan

Let my inspiration flow in token lines suggesting rhythm that will not forsake me till my tale is told and done

While the firelight's aglow strange shadows in the flames will grow till things we've never seen will seem familiar

Shadows of a sailor forming winds both foul and fair all swarm down in Carlisle he loved a lady many years ago

Here beside him stands a man a soldier by the looks of him who came through many fights but lost at love

While the storyteller speaks a door within the fire creaks suddenly flies open and a girl is standing there

Eyes alight with glowing hair all that fancy paints as fair she takes her fan and throws it in the lion's den

"Which of you to gain me, tell will risk uncertain pains of Hell? I will not forgive you if you will not take the chance"

The sailor gave at least a try the soldier being much too wise strategy was his strength and not disaster

The sailor coming out again the lady fairly lept at him that's how it stands today you decide if he was wise

The storyteller makes no choice soon you will not hear his voice his job is to shed light and not to master

Since the end is never told we pay the teller off in gold in hopes he will come back but he cannot be bought or sold
