

Grave Digger, The Reaper

Welcome to the Evil's nightmare
See the demons dancing round waiting for the reaper's rising
Looking out for Satan's crowd

The grave is open, a digger's smile please welcome the dead

Look Behind You; He Stands Behind You
The Reaper Shall Return
Look Reside You; Walks beside You
The Reaper has Returned

Tonight the Reaper's party is open
Get entrance, get the trance
Forget about the words of warning
Forget about the smell of death

The raft of death now leaves the landing
Waters wipe out space and time
Black man gives a skinless smile
Cold greetings reach your mind
