

Gravediggaz, Deathtrap

Intro: Masta Ase

The Masta, the Ase-Inc

Lost is the ghetto dweller trapped in a cage

There's no way out of the death trap

Chorus: Gatekeeper

You can't come back (back)

no matter what you do when you fall in a death trap

You can't come back (back)

no matter what you do when you fall

Verse One: Gatekeeper

Time and time again life's getting shorter

Fear in the air what appears is the border

A nigga named Stef, was shootin up meth with some coke, had a stroke, so I chilled for his death

Time has arrived, four-in-one mind

All the sin steppin in on my face there's a grin

Another dumb vic once moved now step

Grabbed em by the wrist, come to the abyss

Meet Katie, abortion was known with this lady

A Ph.D. many degrees had Mercedes car

She took it to a bar got lit

Like a skunk got drunk, danced rather bumped

Boom, she took the car to the nigga's pad

She didn't want to kick it so the bitch got stabbed

Wrong place and wrong time don't exist no more or for, according to the Gravedigga law

So watch what you do 'fore a fool talks back and behold, riding on your shoulders a Death Trap

Chorus

Verse Two: Ryzarector

This crab named Black, brother sell up crack

And it's a natural fact, in his pockets he had stacks

Bad ass beemer he drove, cause he sold his soul to get ahold of the chrome and gold

True, he felt good as he walked his hood

Bein hunted every night, like a bear in the woods

See cops play the role of a fox

if they catch your ass out on the block, ock it's back to the penalty box

But Black was the type that was like

Yo fuck the C-cipher

I got to get papes, every night

Trailed but you came for kills

See cipher, ain't the only niggaz on the bill

He had like a quarter mil stashed on him

With the click, came through, and he blasted em

So perhaps you're catchin mad snap like that nigga Black, smack, but you caught by the death trap

Chorus - 2X

Verse Three: Grym Reaper

Bitch she had a body like a Lexus Coupe

Her step-father, was robbin the cradle bangin the boots her heartbeat increased at night she couldn't sleep

Daddy dearest, was bringin her grief between sheets

Deep scars invaded her soul force and mind

Six years of torture started at age nine

At age sixteen already an old maid deceived, she was caught like Freddy in a bad dream

Meanwhile her body is being defiled

Tellin her mother, only brought a stage of denial

Moms followed pops on the low-down led to a showdown, for a week shit slowed down

But one night overcome by lust

Father Dukes tried to score just one more thrust

He should've held back the RZA got an axe Gave his dick forty whacks and threw his ass in the death....
(You can't come back)
