

Graveland, To Die In Fight

Cruel coldness turns my heart to ice heavy snowy clouds, covered the nightly sky Snow is falling, wind is blowing and its cold.

Blood in my veins got stopped, woulded i await my last hour hen the snow covers my body when the icy ship takes me to the land of the gods.

A dream makes union with reality

cold snow hurts my eyes
The forest is far from here and my horse is dead

I lost my last battle victory was so near....

in the snowy bed

I found my peace

Now I'm waiting for drackar

Gods promised me

it will come soon

Blood in my veins got stopped,
to the land of the gods.

A dream makes union with reality

and my horse is dead

victory was so near....

in the snowy bed

I found my peace

Now I'm waiting for drackar

Gods promised me

it will come soon
