

Graveworm, Awake

Dying I scream for life
But your eyes are sleeping forever now
Wondering what's to come
I remember the light of your life
Silence shadows of life
Sleeping into eternal time
Darkness revenge on earth
My tears are falling above the face

I saw the fallen angel
Creeping from time to time

A Light in front of me appears
I am at the door of fear one is the day and so the time
The light goes off before I cry

Awake
Awake Jesus Christ - the world must survive
Awake Jesus Christ - I saw the hope

Crying the time has come
To destroy the faith in this earth
Jesus Christ welcome to be
The saver of this faithless life
Destroying the darkest night
Before the sun will rise for light saving nature's life
The sea of blood must stoping now

I saw the fallen angels - die
