

Graveworm, Eternal Winds

As I saw the world in flames
Though the eyes of eternal life
I wish to destroy the life
For every innocent cry
As a sign to die

As I see the mistakes of man
I feel my anger
God will make the end of time
You cry forever

I cry - I saw
Eternal, eternal winds
Eternal, eternal winds
Eternal, eternal winds
Eternal, eternal winds

Your voice screams like
The rain from sky
The end of time has come
Neither time nor a sign
Can stop this cycle of death

Lost in your self there's no way to get out
The world is burning bright
Nothingness before the end
Unreality of fear

A prophecy
Is on the sky
Obscurity
Over the world

I cry - I saw
Eternal, eternal winds
Eternal, eternal winds
Eternal, eternal winds
Eternal, eternal winds

An imagine of total devastation
Characterize the world of today
