

Graveworm, Portrait Of A Deadly Nightshade

Here the cries form (the) dying mankind
In the garden of unholy ground
Whispering voices, summoning screams
Appearing shadows on my face

Far away in the dark fading light
As the ravens cry
And the pleasure of night will arrive
To fight the scarlet sky

See the sky
When angels fly
Hear their screaming pain
Out of the dark

When they leave
Her kingdom light
Soldiers of the night
The demons fight

As darkness falls upon thy face
Whispers in the dark
Swallowing the moonlight sky
The guardians of the night
Draped in sinister pain
Captured in sin
On battlefields of ancient time
The ending life begins

Upon my self
Awaken from hell
Spreading it wings
Crying out loud
The bleeding eyes of death

Forgotten realms
Under the moon
Standing in fear
Ebony tears
Symphonies in blood
