Great Big Sea, Clearest Indication

You left in the morning You left without a word Did you get what you came for? Is this what I deserve?

Oh I know
The silence was the loudest thing
I've ever heard
Where do we stand?
What am I supposed to do?
Give me the clearest indication
I'm not alone with you

Reach out your hand In a world I thought I knew I need the clearest indication The clearest indication from you

Did we have all we wanted And let it slip away in time? Like a country divided 51 to 49.

Years ago I suppose we just can't seem to make up our minds Where do we stand? What am I supposed to do? Give me the clearest indication I'm not alone with you

Reach out your hand In a world I thought I knew I need the clearest indication The clearest indication from you

Oh times like these it's hard to see
With any kind of clarity
What's the point of wondering anymore?
So much I just can't figure out
I'd love to know without a doubt
For sure, for sure
Where do we stand?
What am I supposed to do?
Give me the clearest indication I'm not alone with you

Reach out your hand In a world I thought I knew I need the clearest indication The clearest indication from you (x4) From you.
