

Great Big Sea, Walk On The Moon

Is it just me,
Or a message from above?
Bells are ringin'
Push has finally come to shove.
The door before me now
Has opened just enough.
And I'm sick and tired of waiting
For dreams that never come,
And games I never played in
But still wish that I had won.

(Chorus)
I'm alive,
I've got one shot and I'm takin' it to you.
I'm alive,
I've come to realize not a moment too soon.
That this is my one small step,
This is my walk on the moon.

Don't you think their hands were shakin',
As that rocket ship touched down?
I'm sure they shivered
When they finally touched the ground.
And the giant leap so fragile
That it hardly made a sound.

But it must have been amazing,
What a world they got to see.
So I don't care, my foolish fear,
Won't get the best of me.

(Chorus)
This is my walk on the moon.
Oh it must have been amazing,
What a world they got to see.
Oh, so I don't care, my foolish fear,
Won't get the best of me.

Now, I'm alive,
I've got one shot and I'm takin' it to you.
I'm alive,
I've come to realize not a moment too soon.
I'm alive,
I've got one shot and I'm takin' it to you.
I'm alive,
I've come to realize not a moment too soon,
That this is my one small step,
This is my one small step,
This is my walk on the moon.
This is my walk on the moon.
This is my walk on the moon.
