Great White, Congo Square

(Kendall, Niven) There she goes Miss Heartattack That girl is gone, ain't comin' back Love we had call it yesterday But now is now, today's today And when the sun is shinin' I still feel the same And when the rain is comin' down I'm hurtin' with the pain I've been here before No love, no way, no more Am I just a fool to fall for love Put my heart in gunnysack Dress it up in black on black Take it down to Congo Square Raise it from the dead down there And when the sun is shinin' I will feel no pain And when that rain is pourin' down I'm on my feet again