

Great White, Dead End

(Kendall, Russell, Holland, Black)

Desperate and a loser
A failure at his trade
Nothin' more to live for
Decision that he made
He said that he's sorry
But that won't work this time
End of the line

Bargained for his freedom
His last chance to run
Forced into a corner
And killed by his own gun

Can't take it, can't take it, can't take it no more

End of the line
