Great White, Pain Overload

(music: Lardie, Kendall, Russell, Desbrow / lyrics: Russell, Kendall)
Well, I'm oh-so tired of livin', but there's no easy way to go;
guess I'll keep on fightin' for my soul.
Feelin' so low, don't let is show,
when the heartache comes, ohh...
And so I stand alone in the cold of the night,
until I can't go on anymore,
and when the fever takes me, ohhh...
I get a pain overload, and when it's rainin' down I know,
I'm in a pain overload, always the same.
I get a pain overload, and this pain is all I know;
I'm in a pain overload, can't stop the rain, can't stop the rain.
I've heard it said, it's easy if you try;
Ooh, but I've been told,
life's hard and then you die.
Isn't is so? Can't let it show, when the heartbreak comes.
And so I stand alone in the chill of the night,
until I can't hold on anymore,
and then my demons take me down...
Into a pain overload, and when it's rainin' down I know,
I'm in a pain overload, always the same.
I get a pain overload, there's not a pain I wouldn't know;
I'm in a pain overload, can't stop the rain, can't stop the rain.
