Great White, Silent Night

(Jack Russell, Michael Lardie, Jack Blades)

Every now and then I like to pick up the phone

And make a call down memory lane

Well how you been, well baby you could say I've been lonely too

I've been pickin' up the pieces ever since the day

I left you sleeping on the motel road

I heard you had two kids, got married, it was quite the show

You're my one stone true regret

As I'm lyin' alone in my bed

On this silent night

I say a little prayer for you on this silent night

I send this message through, I was wrong to run

Shoulda took a little time for life

'Cause loneliness is no repayment for sacrifice

I'm doin' time in paradise on this silent night

I remember how we touched, we were young in love

Didn't know what was wrong or right

We just stuck to each other like the earth sticks to the sun

You taught me how to laugh, I learned how to cry

It was easy as one, two, three

We were lucky and wild back then, just happy to be

Now I think about you with desire, and my heart's still full of fire

On this silent night

In my mind I see the wind blow through your hair

I have a photograph of you and I somewhere

Painting pictures of the life that we would share

I wear this badge of sorrow, but how was I to know

I found the truth comes easy when you live in the light

I guess it only goes to show

So you think I'm crazy 'cause I feel this way

Gonna pick myself up off the ground and I'll turn it around

On this silent night

I guess it's time to say good-bye, on this silent night
