

Green Carnation, Lullaby In Winter

[music: Tchoort, lyrics: Kjetil N]

When tomorrow comes
All your worries fly
Hear the lullaby

All will be soft and warm
You will be safe and strong
Hear the lullaby

Can you recall the light?

I know you're sad because it's winter
But I can promise you a spring
I know you're cold, I see you shiver
But I can promise you a spring

Tomorrow's new
Tomorrow's warm
Remember, when you're all alone

I know you're hurt, I feel it in my heart
But I can promise you a spring
I see you're down, I see it in your eyes
But I can promise you a spring
