

Green Day, Angel Blue

Gonna build it up just to burn it down!
You're the princess i'm a fucking clown!
Stop the presses cause i'm feelin' time!
Won't you be my bloody valentine?

You're just a fucking kid and no one ever gives you a break
You want a se?orita and now you're heart is gonna? break

You're Angel Blue with teenage traces
Angel Blue with pretty faces

Stab my heart like a stick in the mud!
Cut my chest just to see the blood!
Now i'm singing out the alphabet!
Adjectives are putting out my cigarette

We're at the cemetery so we can see the holiday lights
Wakin' up the dead and everything will be alright

You're Angel Blue with teenage traces
Angel Blue with pretty faces

Alllriiiiiggghhhh
Stuck in the middle of heaven and hell
Alllriiiiiggghhhh
Tryin' to find my better angels

Stab my heart like a stick in the mud!
Cut my chest just to see the blood!
Stop the presses cause i'm feelin' time!
Won't you be my bloody valentine?

You're just a fucking kid and no one ever gives you a break
You want a se?orita and now you're heart is gonna? break

Angel Blue with pretty faces!
