

Green Day, Living in the '20s

Another shooting in a supermarket
I spent my money on a bloody, soft target
Playing with matches and I'm lighting Colorado
I got my scratcher, and I'm gonna win the lotto

Congratulations best of luck and blessings
We're all together and we're living in the '20s
Salutations on another era
My condolences
Ain't that a kick in the head

I got a buzz like a murder hornet
I drink my media and turn it into vomit
I got a robot and I'm fucking it senseless
It comes with batteries and only speaks in English

Congratulations best of luck and blessings
We're all together and we're living in the '20s
Salutations on another era
My condolences
Ain't that a kick in the head

Congratulations best of luck and blessings
We're all together and we're living in the '20s
Salutations on another era
My condolences
Ain't that a kick in the head
Ain't that a kick in your head
