

Green Lizard, Grey

You always say
That your life's been thrown away
That's why you turned to a man upstairs
And pray he'll save you everyday

Don't come around no more
Save your soul in the eyes of the lord

Long eyes go by
As you still sit 2 wonder why
Your voice can't scream out loud
And your mind's been trapped inside

You know I'm drowning in myself
