

Green Lizard, Hurt

A new feeling grows inside me
Can't take away the black sky
I'm too afraid 2 use new colors
Wave the older man goodbye

I was drowning in the ocean
I couldn't keep my head up
No one ever helped me fighting
No one ever seemed 2 mind
Close you eyes don't be shy
There's no need 2 shut the light
If you're ok i'll be fine

You know there's something for me
It just needs to be found

It hurts 2 know i'm carwling
Why do I feel so betrayed
Tell me when the sky stops falling
Will there be another day
