

Greenwheel, Holding On

Your anger beads me
Your impatience, it kills me
Your action spawned from your immaturity

I can't take this no more
I gave you everything I had
And you can't take advantage of me no more

All the time I've spent, mending my wounds
I could've spent loving you

No I can't let you deceive
You ripped my heart out and spit on my name
And I don't think that I'll ever change

But I'll forgive and I'll forget this time
In your words I will put pass me again this time
I'm hold'n on, I'm hold'n on this time

I still feel your words
You wonder what i'm worth
Why don't you tap these veins for all they're worth?

But I won't play your game
I'm too strong to be ashamed
I think I've found out who's to blame

But I'll forgive and I'll forget this time
In your words I will put pass me again this time
I'm hold'n on, I'm hold'n on this time

Who do you think you are?
Just what do you want from me?
I gave you everything.....I had

I've been hold'n on
I've been hold'n on for so long
I've lost my grip.....lost my....grip

Oh and yeah I'll forgive and I'll forget this time
In your words I put past me again this time
I'm hold'n on, I'm hold'n on this time

No I wont forgive and I wont forget this time
In your words I will put past me again this time
I've lost my grip, lost my grip this time
