

Greenwheel, Strong

Here I am all alone,
Situations overwhelming again.
Be strong,
I tell myself but I fall right back again.

Hold on,
I think I just realised something.

Here I am right in your hands,
There I am letting you take what you can.
I won't let this happen again.
I'm too strong to fall again.

A light of hope fading more each time I breathe,
Decide,
Right or wrong, too many roads, a wounded soul in need.

Hold on,
I think I just realized something.

Here I am right in your hands,
There I am letting you take what you can.
I won't let this happen again.
I'm too strong to fall again.

I won't fall.
I'm too strong.

Hold on,
I think I just realized something.

Here I am right in your hands,
There I am letting you take what you can.
I won't let this happen again.
I'm too strong to fall again.

Here I am.
Here I am.

You know I won't let this happen again.

Here I am.
I won't fall
I'm too strong.
