

Greg Raposo, She's Leaving

She got lost to day and gave up on a smile
Closed the door and I tried to ask her why Put her hair up, as the tears fell from her eyes Make-up running down a face that sleeps away the painful day cause

[chorus]

She's leaving, She's leaving
She's leaving me this way and
You would think that she had lost her mind
she's leaving, she's leaving
It's hard for me to believe in
All the love that she has left behind

She dreams to run away but when it's all still wrong Takes a pill to make her days go on
She needs to know that all in love is never fair
How can I help her out if she just doesn't want me want me there cause

[chorus]

She's leaving, She's leaving
She's leaving me this way and
You would think that she had lost her mind
she's leaving, she's leaving
It's hard for me to believe in
All the love that she has left behind

I get crazy from these problems
I gotta clam down, I gotta calm down
I try so hard to not get mad
It's so hard, yeah, it's hard

[chorus 2x]

She's leaving, She's leaving
She's leaving me this way and
You would think that she had lost her mind
she's leaving, she's leaving
It's hard for me to believe in
All the love that she has left behind

She's leaving, She's leaving
She's leaving me this way and
You would think that she had lost her mind
she's leaving, she's leaving
It's hard for me to believe in
All the love that she has left behind
