

Greg Raposo, Start Looking For Me

I'm looking for someone
But not just anybody
I've been around, I've had my fun
Now it's time to fall in love

I wanna find a smile, a smile to kiss
Someone to hold, and hold hands with

(Chorus 1)

Cause I've been keeping my pockets warm for too long
And I wanna hold someone's hand, to whom I belong
Think about when, when I hear a love song
Hang up the phone and say I love you
Stay up all night thinking about you

I want to hold someone in my arms and hold them so tight
Forever
Just standing there would be heaven, cause we're together
And then I'd sing her a song staring right into her eyes
A song just for her, a song that I wrote for her

(Chorus 2)

Cause I've been keeping my pockets warm for too long
And I wanna hold someone's hand, to whom I belong
Think about when, when I hear a love song
Hang up the phone and say I love you
Stay up all night thinking about you
And I've been looking for love but it's so hard to find
My hearts open so come step inside
I'm looking for love but I must be blind
So girl, start looking for me

And stop me, don't let me pass you by
Don't push me away without giving me a try
Because it takes time for love to begin
It starts with a chance and grows from within
So chance your heart and let me in

I hate being alone, staring at the stars on my own
I need a girl, a girl to tell me she really cares
And anytime she needs someone, I would always be there

(Chorus 2)

Looking for love and I'll wait
Yes I'll wait and wait and wait,
Till the day that love finds me
