

Gregg Allman Band, Anything Goes

Just an everyday evenin'
A few nights ago...
I saw this beautiful lady,
That I scarcely know;
I don't know where she'd come from
I don't know where she's been...
But something in her big green eyes said
to me...
Baby won't you come on in

As the sun was rising
I couldn't let myself go...
But something she showed me
Put a hold on me so
I ain't had this feeling,
Since I don't know when,
Falling in love was the tastthing on my mind,
...but it started all over again...

And I know, what happened to me long time ago...
Bull know, this feeling just thrills me so...

It's like the first ttime walking in the moonlight
The first time you ever touched a rose,
The first time in a long time, everything was alright,
What happens now, nobody knows...anything goes!

The sun was rising
I couldn't make myself go...
Something she showed me
Put a hold on me so
Well I ain't had this feeling,
Since I don't know when,

It's like the first time walking in the moonlight
The first time you ever touched a rose,
The first time in a long time, everything is alright,
What happens now, nobody knows...
Anything goes
Anything goes
