

Gregg Allman Band, Lead Me On

Baby you ain't the same girl
I knew yesterday
Somehow, somewhere...
You picked up on same dangerous ways
I'm always caring,
Each and every day;
I give you all of my love
And you throw it back in my face...

Oh...where have I been going wrong...
Every girl, I've ever known,
Has wound up leading me on

I...ain't getting no stronger,
And you only give me just enough
To keep me holdin' on...longer
Tell me why,...Oo you have to lead me on
Tell me why can't you find it in yourself,
To just leave me alone

Your promises,
Mean less than nothing to me anymore
Lately, I've been wondering
What am I wasting my good time for
Over and over again
I catch you in your evil lies,
This whole charade is over,
Baby, goodbye...

Oh,...where have I been going wrong...
Every girl, I've ever known,
Has wound up leading me on

I...aint getting no stronger
And you only give me just enough
To keep me holdin on...longer
Tell me why...do you have to lead me on
Oh why cant you find it in yourself,
To just leave me alone

I...aint getting no stronger,
And you only give me just enough
To keep me holdin on...longer
Tell me why...do you have to lead me on

Oh why cant you find it in yourself,
To just leave me alone
