

Gregorian, The Circle

Holding on to the man I was Diving into my mind
did I give did I run the curse
Did I fall or was it all in vain
Am I blind or do I see the truth
Hanging there in my eyes

Everything I am everything I see
Is a part of the circle coming back to me
All this joy and pain it will be again
All a part of the circle coming back to me

Life is sweet given what we have
Looking back into time,
I have lived I have tasted love
I give in but was it all in vain

Everything I am everything I see
Is a part of the circle coming back to me
All this joy and pain it will be again
All a part of the circle coming back to me

Everything I am everything I see
Is a part of the circle coming back to me
All this joy and pain it will be again
All a part of the circle coming back to me

Circle coming back to me
Circle coming back to me
Circle coming back to me
Circle coming back to me
Everything I am everything I see
Is a part of the circle coming back to me
All this joy and pain it will be again
All a part of the circle coming back to me
Everything I am everything I see
Is a part of the circle coming back to me
All this joy and pain it will be again
All a part of the circle coming back to me
