

Greta Van Fleet, Lover, Leaver

oh my holy Lord sets my soul on fire flames of love and sweet perfume she's my heart's desire she's an angel straight from hell draws me to the deep in the darkness way below it's my heart she'll keep thunder underground watch the castle fall sound of wind it takes the sky and winter takes us all mountain high against the sky watches as we pray laughing out and smiling proud this is where we lay

oh God hellfire
witch of endor raised Saul will fall to his knees watch the fire blaze

Satan plays his flute for him the sound it burns his ears watch his eyes
his piece of mind
slips and disappears
