

Gretchen, Hell To Pay

(verse 1)

Life is like a jewel
Given to you
Sin is like a thief
Trying to take it away

(chorus)

It's coming to steal it today
You better get your attitude straight
Before you have Hell to pay

(verse 2)

It stung me like a bee
This world's philosophy
It tried to suck me dry
A vampire bite

(chorus)

It's coming to steal it away
You'd better get your attitude straight
Or you're gonna have Hell to pay

(verse 3)

So lock your window
And don't let go
To what you know is true
Or it'll take it from you

(chorus)

It's coming to take it away
You'd better get your attitude straight
Or you're gonna have Hell to pay
(repeat)
