Gretchen Wilson, He Ain't Even Cold Yet

Look at her My God she's dancin' Out there romancin' In her new lover's arms If he were here To see how she's actin' If he could hear her Laughin' It would brak his broken heart

[Chorus]

'Cause he ain't even cold yet The tears haven't dried yet It's not written in stone yet As far as he's concerned He ain't even cold yet The fire's still burnin' She laid his love to rest Showin' no regrets Lord, Heain't even cold yet

If he found out Lord, It would kill him 'Cause he's still livin' In yesterday Whoever tells him That she's not grieven' Would just be leavin' Flowers on his grave

[Chorus]

'Cause he ain't even cold yet The tears haven't dried yet It's not written in stone yet As far as he's concerned He ain't even cold yet The fire's still burnin' She laid his love to rest Showin' no regrets Lord, Heain't even cold yet

She laid his love to rest Showin' no regrets And he ain't eve cold yet
