

Grey Daze, My Reason

I live a life that's sheltered
I'm constantly alone
I'm pointing out my weakness
There's an emptiness at home

I need to find a reason
To live this way
I'm running out of patience
And my life is over

I'm standing here
But I'm on my way
Searching to find an answer
I'm standing here
But it's all the same
And I am running out of patience

Well, I've obtained my reason
For you
And I have gained a reason
For you

But you left me
You left me here
And I'm all alone

I've been stripped of my innocence
I take pity in myself
A certain chain of events
That have left me in this hell

I need to find a reason
To live this way
I'm running out of patience
And my life is over

I'm standing here
But I'm on my way
Searching to find an answer
I'm standing here
But it's all the same
And I am running out of patience

Well, I've obtained my reason
For you
And I have gained a reason
For you

But you left me
You left me here
And I'm all alone
I'm all alone (4x)

Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh
Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh

Well I'm searching
To find my reason
To find a reason
To find my reason
Why I need you
And I need you
And I want you
But I need to

Get away from you
And I need you
And I want you
But I need to
Get away from you
And I need you
And I want you
But I need to
Get away from you
And I need you
And I want you
But I need to
Get away from you!

And I will take my reason
From you
And I needed someone to love me
But you just left me
Here and I'm lonely
You know I needed
Someone to love me
But I'm all alone...
