

Greycrats, Watchman, What Is Left Of The Night

You can only take so much
Before you turn to stone
You can only fight so long
Before you turn to stone

Please say we're almost there
'Cause I can't move another inch
Can't feel my legs

It takes everything to breathe
Before you turn to stone

Please say we're almost there
'Cause I can't move another inch
Can't feel my legs

Sail on
Sail on
Sail on

And you can hear the siren's song
But it's not where you belong

Red sky by night
Sailor's delight
Red sky by morning
Sailor take warning
