

Greydon Square, Gone

It's been a nice ride
But like nice rides it comes to an end so ill step aside like the nice guy
They called my passion anger and then said that I was angry
But what it really was, is the fact they couldn't contain me
Then they criticized my gang life
Then said that I was a fundamentalist atheist in the same night
I keep my heat on my hip like I don't walk with out it
And I've seen people get shot but I don't talk about it
I live in the real world this aint a fantasy
But I got your attention even if you aint a fan of me
Its family that we all after
But now its Greydon Square that has to close the chapter
Maybe someone look after
Everyone after I'm gone
I miss you all already
And for the record my names not Greydon its really Eddie
But I'm a keep it steady, yea im a keep it stompin'
How many quantum physics majors do you know from Compton?
See they expect me to fail, they expect me in jail
But they don't expect me to sale, that's why I stopped
But im not back on the block, im back in them books
Laughin wit crooks that's trying to swap they queen for a rook
And it only took 4 atheist nations and 3 babbles
Hopefully that was enough...
Im Greydon Square signin off
Peace, love and happiness to everyone that's kind at heart
It's just the same thing that I go through like every day
So maybe ill stop now, I think ill just stop now
Just look at how much of myself I gave away
So maybe ill stop now, I think ill just stop now
I hope you people take my atheist nation and run wit it
Have fun wit it, until everything's done with it
And if you have an opinion make sure you come wit it
Some responded well to the videos and some didn't
I shouldn't have to defend myself from other atheists
I really thought that we were on the same side
After the blasphemy challenge hell everything changed
I thought it was insane we were more divided than ever
But I pressed on and made a couple more videos
Trying not to slug it out with silly foes
Then they said that I wasn't supporting other people
That I was doin this how it was all about my ego
Are you serious thats when I actually knew?
That there was really nothing left to do
So I left
It's just the same thing that I go through like every day
So maybe ill stop now, I think ill just stop now
Just look at how much of myself I gave away
So maybe ill stop now, I think ill just stop now
