

Greydon Square, Squared

Hey yo

There was once a time

When everybody believed in at least some form of god

And religion ruled the world

It was called the 'Dark Ages'

Look

They act like I set out to be famous

Talking out the anus

Then go on to describe my lyrics as heinous

Its funny how threatening music is ain't it

To the typical mono-theistical hypocritical ignoramus

I gives a damn what your name is

For all intents and purposes you can remain nameless

Or have the same name as

Jesus, Buddha, Zeus, or Muhammad

Worshiping every star in the sky plus Haley's comet

(Why don't you believe in God?)

Why don't you believe in Ra?

(huh?)

Why don't you turn to the east daily and pray to Allah?

(I don't know)

I'm just a guy speaking the facts

If you don't like it you can leave through the back

Creationism is a joke and I'll leave it at that

Look at these so-called down brothers

Hell I might as well be looking at their grandmothers

Thats where they get it from anyways

Just brain washed by the fear and the whip like mini slaves

(Its cause they scare of the truth)

Yeah that's why they attack us

Try to make up crap about us

(Because they scare of the truth)

Trying to go song for song

When they jealous of us all along

(Its cause they scare of the truth)

Man they don't want it with us

Bottom line is they just wanna be us

(Its cause they're scare of the truth)

Take your mediocre songs and your kindergarten blogs and stuff

(Questions)

How could you god be jealous if he was the only one?

How would we be his children with Jesus his only son?

There's just too many holes but I'll leave you with this

If God was omni-benevolent how could evil exist?

Let me break it down even further

Say I had a pound of salt

And I asked you with in it to find sugar (okay)

Where would it come from?

If there was zero percent sugar content then logically you'd never find none

Teaching logic to theists you can forget it

Cause not matter how far you dumb it down they just don't get it

So I'll swear to God (which one?)

I don't care pick one

Ba'al, Apophis, Anubus, hell how bout Krishna

That I'll do whatever it takes to spread truth

And to challenge everything that your God said do

My tongue is like the hammer of Thor

Nailing your deity to a cross and asking for more

I'm Greydon Square

(Its cause they scare of the truth)

Yeah that's why they attack us
Try to make up crap about us
(Cause they scare of the truth)
Try to go song for song
When they jealous of us all along
(Its cause they scare of the truth)
Man they don't wanna with us
Bottom line is they just wanna be us
(Its cause they're scare of the truth)

When you understand why you reject all other gods
You'll understand why I reject yours
Stephen F Roberts said that and I take it to heart
Think about when I debate theists and take 'em apart
I'm a child of one lesser god
No superstitious bologna
Or moody temperamental invisible homies
If it exists then show me
Not a book written by man
With letters and words written by hand
(But the bibles Gods inspired word)
Prove it
Until you can prove the bible was divinely inspired then its useless
Extraordinary claims require extraordinary evidence
If you don't believe me ask your Reverend
To sight precedent where faith wasn't involved
Until he does we just gonna stop listen to ya'll
Cause you talking in circles
We'll listen when you talk with a purpose
And that's real

(Its cause they scare of the truth)
Yeah that's why they attack us
Try to make up Crap about us
(Cause they scare of the truth)
Try to go song for song
When they jealous of us all along
(Its cause they scare of the truth)
Man they don't wanna with us
Bottom line is they just wanna be us
(Its cause they're scare of the truth)
Take your mediocre songs and your kindergarten blogs and stuff

Dedicated to you Candice
Zachariah 13:3 King James of course
And it shall come to pass
That when any shall yet prophesy
Then his father and his mother that begat him shall say to him
Thou shall not live
For thou speaketh lies in the name of the LORD
And his father and his mother that begat him

Shall thrust him through when he prophesies.

Only problem with that is
My father's dead and my mother wants nothing to do with me
I'm glad I crated my own family
I'd be dead by now
