

Grief Of Emerald, Warsworn

Baptized in blood by the hate in my heart
And tears wet the ground, painted black for the dawn
Allegiance is sworn by the reverent souls
None to obey but war...

Tides of grievance is marking man's fate
And die will they all, drowned in blood
Shed in hate
I remain incarnated, the demon of war
When my time has come, I'll arise!!!

Carry me twilight - usurp the warsworn

Firestorms blaze
Revive from your sleep
Consume, slay and shatter the feeble lord's sheep
Since oceans of time in the emerald sky
Since first life of mortals, honour finally die
