

Grinspoon, Chemical Heart

When,
look 4 a ride and u need to get high my friends, spend all ur time just walkin around instead, like black rose it's sombody to hold for them for them.

Let's
go out side got nothing to hide for free, can't seem to see the forrest from the trees, grass is always greener but how do you know we'll see we'll see

can't get started
chemical heart
everytime i get started
u pull me apart
can't get started
chemical heart
you pull me apart

forgotten,
maybe things are better on thes other side undone better off wishen for the stsars to kill the sun, like packed rows that nobody can hold no one, no one

[chorus]

yeah!

oooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooh

looking for a ride and you need to get high my friends spend all your time just walkin around instead LIKE PACKED ROWS THAT NO ONE CAN HOLD NO ONE, NO ONE

[chorus x2]
