

Grinspoon, Choke

Just because you choked on it ,
It doesn't mean that you have to go .
I can't receive sms and I just wanted you to know.
I smoked alot of cigaretttes, but did that stop us from being friends?
Could've guessed your lies on it but did we get there? I hope we got there in the end.

Yesterday we cruised on automatic , tall grass is ready to roll
Where were you when it got all dramatic? Hiding away in your hole.

Pretty please don't cry on me ,because I don't think I got the strength.
If I could've cried outside in the rain. But did we get there?
I know we got there in the end.

Yesterday we cruised on automatic , tall grass is ready to roll
Where were you when it got all dramatic? Hiding away in your hole.

Maybe on another Sunday, pick another time and we fight looking over your shoulder
Maybe on another Sunday, pick another fight and no one is right now your feelings are gone.

Just because you're soaked in it, does that mean that you have to go?
I smoke all of your cigarettes, but it meant nothing , it meant nothing in the end.

Yesterday we cruised on automatic , tall grass is ready to roll
Where were you when it got all dramatic? Hiding away in your hole.
