

Grits, Dusk Till Dawn

CH1

From dusk to dawn, I just can't get enough of your love
Winter to fall, you got me falling
Morning to evneing, where the moonlight sun shining 365
You're my spring
From dusk to dawn

V1

I done been love, been in love, out and back again
Friends with benefits, love that's limited
Love that ain't love, it's lust unlimited
Very infatuated, overly saturated
Love so deep, I was literally captivated
Love that overrated, emotions she demonstrated
Penetrated hate with love, imitated hate in love
And it grew more complicated
Sun going down, breeze blowing cold
Degrees getting deeper, summer getting old
My spring thing soon became an annual queen
Cuz I seen things better, esteemed to things better
My team is deemed greater, in tune with my creator
Cuz love sings a song the world can heal from
See the light -- cuz the way that we raise em
Teach em nothing in this life besides Christ can save them
I see the storm in the midst, feel the breeze blowing leaves
Feel the cold through my jeans, catchup
These things that we face sometimes
Replace these dreams that we make sometimes

CH2

From dusk to dawn, I just can't get enough of your love
Winter to fall, you got me falling
Morning to evneing, where the moonlight sun rising 365

We all go through so many changes, dealing with a lot of different things
