

Groove Coverage, Is Not To Late

Remeber the time 1989
when i grew up to see the sign (or sun)
without you
I can't breath

I look upon
to see the stars
the Milky Way
and Moon and Mars
I miss you
by my side

Who will ever know the way
if I came back to hear you say
I need you in my life

Holding on It's not too late forget the past
try to create
A feeling that can't wait

If you want
I know it's not too late
