

Groove Coverage, You!

never ever deep in love never had a home others holding hands all day while i was on my own
would you take my hand
would you run away with me
to that destination
when we can be so free
never ever felt this way where've you been before i've been searching all my life now you will call my door
and i can be your girl
be your girl tonight
and i can see the world
i see it in your eyes
we can be
you can be
they can be too
as long as there's eternity
as long as there's you my emotions getting stronge you heart be close to mine if i can be your girl tonight i cross you so i'll sign would you say my name
when i'm sleeping next to you would you say it loud
when i'm lying over you no-one does it better no-one loves the way you do
believe me there's you
would you scream it loud
i wanna be your girl tonight with you right here by my side a thousand miles i run for you and to for eternity
