

Groovie Ghoulies, Hard Night's Day

You know, it's been a hard night's day.

I'm tired, but I feel okay.

I hope I can come home tonight, then everything'll be all right.

I'll stumble right up to your door, and say, "Please can I have some more?"

You know you're such a lovely sight.

It's better to be in love than in a fight.

You say that I have got what he has not.

I want to be your lover.

You say that you can't judge a book until you get between the covers.
