

Groovie Ghoulies, Jetpack

by the time you get off work at the Burger Galaxy you won't have to be outside waiting around for me my new jetpack arrived today I'll be there on time to take you away go anywhere that you wanna go I'm not sure they'll allow it at the drive-in though but anywhere else will be ok from Tokyo down to Tampa Bay don't seem to be any traffic in the sky tonight no chance of a mid-air collision

Mom don't want me to go I've already made my decision

my jetpack
my jetpack
my jetpack
my jetpack

And when our jetpack date is done and we're all finished having fun for now at least I'll take you home so you don't have to be alone I'll set you down above your room kiss you goodnight before the moon I'll pick you up tomorrow night for a new adventure and a jetpack flight

don't seem to be any traffic in the sky tonight

my jetpack
my jetpack
my jetpack
my jetpack

my jetpack
