

Groovie Ghoulies, The Spell Is On

Don't try & fight it, just let it be.
Ain't no denying you're the one for me.
By tomorrow morning everything'll be fine.
The spell is on & you're gonna be mine.
I'm gonna tell you how it's gonna be.
You're gonna give your love to me.
You'll think only of me every single hour.
The spell is on & you're under my power.
Don't try & fight it, just let it be.
Those were the words that she spoke to me.
Now she's the only person that I want to see.
The spell is on and I don't wanna be free.
