

Guadalajara, 21

I'm 21 my life has just begun- what great fun
The girl I've got watch out
Yeah that is all I care about

My girlfriend ran away
But since this day I am ok
I wanna take revenge on her
And blow her head away

You came and left me there behind
But now I'm stronger in my mind

I'm 64 my life has almost ended
I'm feeling so sick and tired
I'm feeling stranded
I lived the life of riley all my lifetime long
Except for several years
When I spent all my days with this stupid chick
And shedded all my tears
