

Guadalajara, Imprisoned

When the sun sends out it's light
Deepest darkness falls on you
Who can take you really serious
When you are excusing the whole day

Cause you walked so many ways
But where do you really go
Now you've switched to standby mode
I guess you are all I want

You can never go back to where you were once before
So best try to move things right in present
To be an automatic object is a true human defect
Don't take anything for granted- that's all you fucking need

Just walk this way for
As long as you want to
But be sure that it will lead you to nowhere
Sometimes we build walls
And we'll never touch the moon
Our lifetime long

All the mountains that you've climbed
Little hills they were instead
Will you ever reach your aims
With all these many games you've played
Contradictions in your words
I comment them with a smile
It feels good to have you here
Though it is just for a while
