

Guadalajara, What The Hell Is Babylon?

What the hell is Babylon?
I heard them singing about it
But I can't find it on ma map
What's a rastafarian?
Aren't that people with a genetic hair defect?
And isn't reggae an immortal dictatorship like wedding an endless relationship

I've never cried about a woman
And I also haven't shot any officer of justice
I've never been to Kingston Cause I don't know where this place really is Nobody is strong like a lion
Well I have never seen Except Clarence and Simba
and the whole jamaican bobsleighteam

I'm walking through the shadow of the pale moonlight
I don't know nothing about reggae and Bob Marley's life
Of using hashpipes, smoking drugs
I don't wanna legalize anything- but I'm allright

I've never been to sunsplash
Aren't green, yellow and red the national colours of Cameroon?
I think I get a headcrash
Singing about reggae as long as soon
Weren't the Wailers a hockeyteam from Heartford
Why are they singing about the power of the lord?

I'm walking through the shadow of the pale moonlight
I don't know nothing about reggae and Bob Marley's life
Of using hashpipes, smoking drugs
I don't wanna legalize anything- but I'm allright
